“Focus”

The days are getting longer, the months are getting longer and it feels like this year has gone on FOREVER. There is so much going on. Everything - it seems is demanding our attention ~~RIGHT NOW!~~ As you know, all the news is not good, but then, is it EVER? Sometimes it is hard to take, harder to stomach. You get a little bit fed up. We grow weary, we get tired. So many voices all clamoring for our attention. So much of it is repetitive over and over again. It is like the media is hammering away at us, day in, day out. And, if you are like me, you have SO MANY to pray for my DAILY LIST of prayers is INCREASINGLY getting longer and longer and longer. So many people to pray for so many people STRUGGLING (silently and alone) right now And our republic seems to be TORN and SPLINTERING in so many different directions all at the same time. There are so many different FACTIONS of people. Where is there unity? Thank God it is July.

I am thankful for July. I am thankful for the fourth. Not as a day off. But as a chance and as an opportunity to reflect to focus or better yet, to refocus

I desire for people to feel good about the USA, I desire for hatred to cease. I desire for love to carry the day. I desire for us to be ONE NATION UNDER GOD, call him by whatever name you will but allow him to rule over our hearts and our minds and over our lives. I desire for individuals to be faithful, to turn toward the ground of their being once again. I desire a unity and oneness among the human family, a comradery, if you will. We are all one and we are all in it - together. I pray for equality. I pray for justice. I pray for those serving in public office. I pray for our police officers and fire-fighters and for all first responders. I pray for our military stationed around the globe. These are not easy times. They are stressful times for a lot of people. They are unprecedented times in many ways.

But we will get through these days. We will one day look back on these days...

And I for one, know WHO IT IS . that is seeing me through thank God for times of quiet reflection

See you in worship!

Pr. Mortenson

Did You Know?

- During the American Revolution, the legal separation of the thirteen colonies from Great Britain in 1776 actually occurred on July 2, when the Second Continental Congress voted to approve a resolution of independence that had been proposed in June by Richard Henry Lee of Virginia declaring the United States independent from Great Britain's rule.
- After voting for independence, Congress turned its attention to the Declaration of Independence, a statement explaining this decision, which had been prepared by a Committee of Five, with Thomas Jefferson as its principal author.
- Congress debated and revised the wording of the Declaration, finally approving it two days later on July 4.
- A day earlier, John Adams had written to his wife Abigail:
The second day of July 1776, will be the most memorable epoch in the history of America. I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival.
It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty.
It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forever more.
- Adams's prediction was off by two days. From the outset, Americans celebrated independence on July 4, the date shown on the much-publicized Declaration of Independence, rather than on July 2, the date the resolution of independence was approved in a closed session of Congress.
- Historians have long disputed whether members of Congress signed the Declaration of Independence on July 4, even though Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, and Benjamin Franklin all later wrote that they had signed it on that day.
- Most historians have concluded that the Declaration was signed nearly a month after its adoption, on August 2, 1776, and not on July 4 as is commonly believed.

The Fourth of July

Independence Day (colloquially the Fourth of July or July 4th) is a federal holiday in the United States commemorating the Declaration of Independence of the United States, on July 4, 1776. The Continental Congress declared that the thirteen American colonies were no longer subject (and subordinate) to the monarch of Britain, King George III, and were now united, free, and independent states. The Congress had voted to declare independence two days earlier, on July 2, but it was not declared until July 4.

St. James, the Elder, Apostle

July 25th

James the Great also known as James, son of Zebedee or as Saint James the Elder, died in 44 AD.) James was one of the Twelve Apostles (those sent out) of Jesus according to the Early Christian Writings.

James is described as one of the first disciples to join Jesus. The Synoptic Gospels say that James and John were with their father (Zebedee) by the seashore when Jesus called them to follow him.

Saint James is the patron saint of Spain and, according to tradition, his remains are held in Santiago de Compostela in Galicia.

The Acts of the Apostles records that "Herod the king" (traditionally identified with Herod Agrippa) had James executed by the sword.

Some scholars suggest that this may have been caused by James's fiery temper, for which he and his brother earned the nickname Boanerges or "Sons of Thunder".

Because the 25th falls on a day of worship, we should be commemorating the life and the death of St. James on that date.

Stewardship:

All Saints family, you are amazing! You are coming through with your gifts! God has given us the gift of life! One way to receive-gift+is to support All Saints! Right now, we can support in person (such as being a communion assistant or greeter, etc.), as we would like, but we can continue to support monetarily! And YOU are doing that! Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

By the time you read this, our virtual services might be over! But you can still read the lessons, and read Pastor's sermons weekly, if you choose to not be at church in person. We will still have our spiritual guidance! Whatever your choice is, I pray that you stay safe and healthy.

The Art Fair is still going on, and I believe if you keep socially distanced (wear your cool masks if you must, I made some cool ones for myself) and in doing so, you can support that fundraiser for All Saints.

Everything that you can do for church through giving will help our church once we are back together again when the virus is no longer a threat!! Consider Simply Giving or Simply Donate. <https://allsaintsoakcreek.org/give/> Click this link and it will take you there. THANK YOU!!!!

Thank you and may God bless you and your familiesō

World Concerns

The World Concerns committee is writing an article a month with something related to crucial social issues of our day.

I believe wearing a mask is a crucial issue for our church membership and ourselves when we go out into the community. Most stores and restaurants are requiring the use of masks.

You may not know anyone directly infected with the virus, but if you read the latest news reports, you will find someone who has contracted it from attending a social event or do not know where they contracted it. They admit they did not wear a mask.

One may say they do not like the feel of the mask or they cannot breathe wearing one, so they do not wear it. I have tried 3 or 4 masks before I found one that is comfortable. You also may need to try a few to find the right one. Please find one to wear.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathy Bauman
Chairwoman

St. Mary Magdalene

July 22nd

(Because this date also occurs on the day of a weekly celebration, this date should be held in commemoration, as well!)

Mary Magdalene, sometimes called simply ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> Magdalene+ was a Jewish woman who, according to the four canonical gospels, traveled with Jesus as one of his followers and was a witness to his crucifixion, burial, and resurrection.

She is mentioned by name twelve times in the canonical gospels, more and more than any other non-family woman in the Gospels.

Mary's epithet Magdalene may mean that she came from the town of Magdala, a fishing town on the western shore of the Sea of Galilee.

The Gospel of Luke 8:2. 3 lists Mary Magdalene as one of the women who traveled with Jesus and helped support his ministry "out of their resources", indicating that she was probably relatively wealthy.

The same passage also states that seven demons had been driven out of her, a statement which is repeated in the longer ending of Mark.

In all four canonical gospels, Mary Magdalene is a witness to the crucifixion of Jesus and, in the Synoptic Gospels, she is also present at his burial.

All four gospels identify her, either alone or as a member of a larger group of women which includes Jesus' mother, as the first to witness the empty tomb, and the first to witness Jesus' resurrection. For these reasons, Mary Magdalene is known in some Christian traditions as ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> APOSTLE to the Apostles.+

Mary Magdalene is a central figure in later Gnostic Christian writings, including the Dialogue of the Savior, the Pistis Sophia, the Gospel of Thomas, the Gospel of Philip, and the Gospel of Mary which many scholars attribute to Mary Magdalene.

These texts portray Mary Magdalene as an apostle, as Jesus' closest and most beloved disciple and the only one who truly understood his teachings.

Just for Laughs...

A woman had just returned to her home from an evening of church services, when she was startled by an intruder. She caught the man in the act of robbing her home of its valuables and yelled:

“Stop! Acts 2:38! (Acts 2:38 (ESV) says “Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of your sins.”)

The burglar stopped in his tracks. The woman calmly called the police and explained what she had done. As the officer cuffed the man to take him in, he asked the burglar: “Why did you just stand there? All the old lady did was yell a scripture to you.”

“Scripture?” replied the burglar. ‘She said she had an Ax and Two 38s!’

A minister parked his car in a no-parking zone in a large city because he was short of time and couldn't find a space with a meter.

Then he put a note under the windshield wiper that read: “I have circled the block 10 times. If I don't park here, I'll miss my appointment. Forgive us our trespasses.”

When he returned, he found a citation from a police officer along with this note:

“I've circled this block for 10 years. If I don't give you a ticket I'll lose my job. Lead us not into temptation.”

Eyeglasses and Hearing Aids Wanted

All Saints is working with the Lion's Club to collect eyeglasses and hearing aids, which can be recycled for those in need. Pass the word to friends and relatives, too. A drop box is located in the entryway.

Lions Club of Oak Creek extends a Thank You to all who have been contributing to their cause. The response has been great and much appreciated.

Can I or A Family Member Have a Church Funeral?

This is a question that arises quite frequently by non-members or Members with non-member family. The answer is not always an easy one but, the only people eligible for a funeral held at All Saints are Members of All Saints. P.J. will only do immediate family funerals for Members of All Saints at his discretion and only at the Funeral Home and not the Church.

Wine or Grape Juice, Gluten free wafers?

Are you aware that both wine and grape juice are available on each communion tray? The grape juice is always in the center glasses. If you wish to have grape juice all you need to do is ask the communion assistant and it will be given.

We also have gluten free wafers available but you need to let Pj know before the liturgy if you wish them available for communion.

Serve the Lord with gladness! Come into his presence with singing! ~ Psalm 100:2
