Communion Announcement: (?)

You do need to know that ours at All Saints is an "Open Communion Table" and therefore-you are encouraged to participate.
At a joyous time such as this we should never allow denominational differences to divide us -
But rather, like the Bridal Couple to unite us in love - Please allow the Bridal Party to receive first.
Thank You!

Thank You written out by the Wedding Couple for inclusion in bulletin:
